A LA CARTE: ELEMENTS OF AN ELEGANT HOME BY SHERRILL CANET PDF

For New York-based interior designer Sherrill Canet, the past is something she recreates with relish, and is one of the hallmarks of her aesthetic. The decorator takes her cues from disparate periods and regions, including eighteenth century French and English antiques, chinoiserie, painted furniture, Art Deco, the glamour of the Gilded Age, and the mansions that once dotted the Gold Coast of Long Island, New York, a region Canet also calls home. A la Carte offers readers a tutorial in decorating in a range of styles, from Old World traditional to chic and tailored. Whether your library is a modern den or a gentleman's English country retreat, Canet advises you on choosing the room's essential elements - with comfort and function in mind. From mixing pieces and fabrics to furniture arranging, Canet helps would-be designers or homeowners create what, in the end, everyone dreams of-a happy, wonderful to live-in home.

Charm and Chic

By Vicki long Long's Antiques

Sherrill Canet's book shares the historical architecture of Long Island Sound. Her home, built in 1919, became her design laboratory. While keeping with her traditional style of decorating, Sherrill compliments the old-fashioned architecture of her house by adding creative modern touches. She shows us the phases that each room goes through over the years as Sherrill puts her own special stamp on the house.

Her studies help her identify the essentials for creating an old world atmosphere--from Chippendale to baroque to gothic style. All of these elements help create a home full of charm and are the inspiration for Canet's own design of furniture for Stark. She shows us how to respect the elegance of the past while embracing the future.
