Book Two of Three

Growing up was never easy. Not when my life was lived according to what my stepbrothers decided for me.

Maya Carter couldn't wait to go off to college to escape her bossy stepbrothers, Gage and Greer. Returning home during Spring Break of her senior year, Maya was reunited with her older twin stepbrothers to find that they were more beautiful and enchanting than she remembered them to be.

Maya didn't know how she felt about them - and believed that she still hated them as much as she had when she was younger. But one night out with her best friend and Maya discovered something about her stepbrothers that would turn her world - and her feelings - upside down.

Will Maya fall for her stepbrothers because of their profession? Or will she be able to resist the two men that every woman she knew wanted for themselves?
