Loved it!!!

By Tash

In His Shelter presents a unique and rare view of army life with an incredible testimony of God's protection and provision interweaving each chapter. The content is well written with a dry humour that relates the author's story as if the reader was there, experiencing it all with him. All these elements, combined with Brendan's very real faith in God, makes this insightful book a thoroughly enjoyable read.

Excellent!

By Danny Tennet

An extremely well written, in depth look at Brendan's life and walk with God as he ventured into the British Army. His book is full of humorous stories and inspiring examples of his unwillingness to compromise on his faith in situations that most of us could not begin to comprehend.
