Recent events have caused what I'm calling a "Perfect Storm" in the Real Estate Market, and there is to be a great deal of money to be made.

The Rent To Own Revolution book lays out framework showing Home Owners and Investors the 5 reasons they should sell their home through the Rent To Own Revolution method and the step by step system that set's the Tenant Buyers up for Success!

For far too long the only Exposure and Publicity Rent to Own ever received was negative, thanks to shady investors taking advantage of individuals not understanding the Rent To Own process.

But NO MORE!

It is my mission to start a REVOLUTION and be the one leading the charge. I aim to legitimize the Rent to Own industry through education and standardized processes, procedures, systems and using contracts that are fair and equitable to all parties involved.

After reading the book I hope you decide to join the Rent To Own Revolution movement. Help me spread the word that when done right, Rent To Own is a great way for Home Owners and investors to make a great deal of money by helping others get into home ownership.

Inside the book you will have instructions to get a FREE video training series that walks you through calculating how much you can make on your home as well as the 5 Reasons you would want to sell your home through the Rent To Own Revolution.

You will also get access to our FREE Member's Area where you will get access to all the latest updates and resources.

"John has spent years working in the real estate business. He has seen what works, what doesn't work, what needs to be tweaked and what needs to be cannibalized. He has seen how many investors use the Rent to Own strategy in unethical ways for personal gain. It is refreshing to see a book that addresses this upfront. John wants to bring legitimacy back to the Rent to Own strategy. At its core, the Rent to Own strategy is vendor financing at its very win win win best. It protects all the parties involved when it is structured the correctly. Within the pages of this book John has developed a system that takes years of best practices and experiences and assembles them into a step by step process and system that anyone can clearly understand, follow and use."
