Anyone who has ever owned a garage knows that garage organization is not as easy as one would expect. Those folks can attest to just how emotionally and physically taxing the process can be. I have heard stories from countless homeowners who have struggled to organize their garage. Many have tried, failed, and tried again to restore order to the area. Some have even spent money on garage storage solutions only to find the clutter still overwhelming. It is going to take more than a few good looking garage cabinets to clean up an extremely cluttered garage though. Before you even think about a garage storage system, you need a process to get the area cleaned up. The Book on Garage Organization will guide you through a proven four step organization method. The goal from the beginning will be to create a space that is designed to sustain the organized garage well past the first few euphoric weeks or months. Sure there are lots of stories about hardships and struggles folks have endured. But there are also hundreds of stories from homeowners who have been able to successfully transform their garage. The Book on Garage Organization sets the foundation for doing just that. Lack of a good process is likely the culprit behind many failed attempts at getting organized. This time, with a little guidance, you too can reclaim your garage. Are you tired of the scene in your garage? Would you like to use one of the largest areas of your home for more than just dumping grounds? Is clutter forcing you to park your vehicles outside? Whether you are interested in getting the most out of your storage space, want a place to park the cars, want to create a custom workshop, have some other plans for the area, or just want to get the garage organized The Book on Garage Organization has something for you!

A Hoarders Dream!

By wattswfff

The Book on Garage Organization: What's hiding Behind Your Garage Door was a very practical and easy to read book. I found it very useful in helping to determine the things I should really keep and the ones that I should let go of. It has inspired me to start my garage organization ASAP!! I really like that it showed how to get a plan together before deciding on the must haves that you need for your garage. There is nothing like spending money and then realizing that you did not get the right organizers. Great book to keep your garage from becoming the neighborhood embarrassment!

Excellent Adaptation of 5S Principles!

By Cody Smith

The Book on Garage Organization is an excellent step-by-step adaptation of 5S principles that I've used at work for years now. I never would have thought that something like that could be adapted to my home life, but this book has been a real eye-opener!

The author's suggestions for storage systems are both innovative and creative. I wouldn't have thought to use a car lift in my own home, but believe me, I will certainly be getting one to make my life easier!

I would recommend this book to anyone who has issues with clutter in their home. You can easily adapt the principles and steps they outline to almost any area of the home, even beyond the garage. The information is invaluable and it's easy to read and follow!
