Useful tool for future counselors

By DeridderMom

I used this book for an upper level course dealing with the Ethical issues in helping profession. I found it informative and well laid out. The material progressed well from beginning to end. Highly recommend for future counselors or helper professionals.

On Time

By Sherri M. Nelson

I use Amazon, quite often for books, small electronics accessories, the service is always good and the delivery is always on point. I needed this book for school and I got it in a couple of days of the actual due date. It was practically brand new. Thank you again for great service.
